

From Punch.

America in Hysterics.
Mr. PUNCH has great pleasure, (at the request of numerous American friends,) in devoting a portion of his invaluable space to the immortalizing a few of the addresses transmitted from the various States to New York in honor of the Atlantic Cable. He must remark, however, that in magnificence of imagination and fluency of diction, they scarcely equal, and they assuredly do not transcend, the splendid effusions published in the Times newspaper from the American journals, which record the celebration in question.

FROM THE GOVERNOR OF CONNECTICUT

I salute ye. The deed is done. A new heart-string, forgotten at creation, has been inserted into the world, and henceforth its pulse will keep time to the flapping of the wings of our Almighty and inextinguishable eagle. May the blood of freedom course along that giant vein with the rush of Niagara, and sweep away before its mightiness the moulderings cements of antiquated hallucination.

FROM THE GOVERNOR OF MASSACHUSETTS

The golden harp of civilization and progress needed one chord of iron to sustain her sterner harmonies, and it has been added by Cyrus W. Field. May it sound in glory and vigor until the end of time, and five and twenty minutes later.

FROM THE GOVERNOR OF TENNESSEE.

Noble, O thrice noble man! Nobler than Canute, the French tyrant. Cyrus, the Great, has ordered the sea to obey his behests, and ocean has obeyed him.—Xerxes, the haughty Roman, caused fitters to be hung into the Archipelago in sign of his dominion; but Cyrus W. Field has thrown one fetter across the waste of waters, not for dominion but freedom. O noble men, let us liquor.

FROM THE GOVERNOR OF MISSOURI.

When the heart would speak in presence of a miracle, the words are feeble, but our souls rush out in song; and we sing to you, brothers, in the strains of our great and inimitable land;

London is very big,
America is bigger;
But we are a big
Which cuts the smallest figure.
Send the cargo to the fro,
The bottle to the table,
Nothing in creation
Licks the Atlantic cable.

FROM THE GOVERNOR OF ALABAMA.

Hail Columbia, happy land. Now fast linked to England's sand. Let us jingle with heart and hand. Ocean is repelled.—To her coral rocks and shelves Lo the cable dives and delves. Let us drink our noble selves. Likewise Cyrus Field.

FROM THE GOVERNOR OF OHIO.

If England has given us no more towards our great American sea triumph, she has given us a thought in the name of her little vessel which waited upon our giant fleet. The Agamemnon's name is a corruption of Memnon, the ancient Hebrew warrior, whose statue on the plains of Thessaly, sounded out one note when the morning sun shone upon it. So, now when the sun of enlightenment dawns from America upon Occidental darkness, the electric ray flashes from us to the Hiberian shore, may the inexpressive slaves of feudalism for the first time raise the music note of liberty.

FROM THE GOVERNOR OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Yankee Doodle used to ride,
On a little pony;
Now he talks to th' other side
In twenty minutes only.

FROM THE GOVERNOR OF DELAWARE.

The b'hoys must have their amusements, and so we've tied England to a long string and we'll fly her like an almighty great kite. When we're tired of the sport, and want to be quit of it, we calculate we'll just wind her in, and hang her up on one of the monster trees of our unfathomable forest. Guess we've utilized the tardation old caution at last; yes, sirre.

FROM THE GOVERNOR OF ARKANSAS.

This here we look on was the real creation of the world; the other was only a sort of rehearsal. Now is given to the eastern inarticulate continents a voice of humanity and intelligence, and they can now whisper their hopes and fears to majestic America, and receive from her lessons of wisdom and greatness. The educational work is confined to us, friends; and we will not be slack. Alone the awful charms of the roiling ocean shall try the teeths of liberty, and Field's wire, like the spear of Uranus, shall touch the squat toad of despotism at the ear of Eve, and the fiend starting up in all his sulphurous ignominy of ugliness, shall be spiked like a bug bee upon the crystal weapon of Columbia.

FROM THE GOVERNOR OF VIRGINIA.

Ole Virginia never tire,
But dance on this electric wire.
Clear the kitchen, &c.

FROM THE GOVERNOR OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Friend Field, thou have, according to worthy evidence, done a part of thy task, and it is well. When thou hast fastened both ends of thy string, and the fixins, and hast greatly and finally reduced the price of thy messages, we may see cause for further communication with thee. Meantime, we wish thee success, but decline to burn money in fireworks, melt it in strong liquors, or waste it in wasting time upon idle demonstrations. Amen!

FROM THE GOVERNOR OF LOUISIANA.

Two nations in two different ages, viz., stand prominently out of the above, one, England, a respectable old house, and one, America, of short fame, and the power of nature could not further go, so made C. W. Field to join the two.

This is all the room Mr. PUNCH can this week spare to these remarkable productions, and he will only add, that it does not appear to him wonderful that under such terrific pressure and strain of compliment, the unfortunate cable, being of English make and unused to hyperbole, gave way, and sent down shares from £615 to £150.
